

It seems some of the senators want to increase the salaries of congressmen from $5,000 to $10,000, and members of the house sympathize with them but still would not venture to double the pay, fearing a popular outbreak like the "salary grab" excitement in 1873. The reason for that outbreak was not so much the increase of salary as the fact that it was made retroactive. There is no ground for the belief that a reasonable increase of salary made in the proper manner would arouse public indignation or protest. But congressmen cannot afford to double their pay any more than they could to date back the increase, as was done in the case of the "salary grab" of 1873. The increase must be moderate and not retroactive. —Chicago Tribune.

The question of increasing the salary of congressmen is becoming a sober one with the members of both houses. To one who is not narrowminded and is not prejudiced, the justice in demanding an increase in congressional salaries will appear plain for four reasons:

First—The inter-state commerce act has largely increased the expenses of congressmen by cutting off all passes so that in many cases the increase is nearly a thousand a year.

Second—The position which a congressman holds naturally makes demands upon him which five thousand a year will not meet. There are members in both houses who are actually compelled to spend two or three times their salaries in living, and they can't do less without seeming to be penurious.

Third—In a very large majority of cases a congressman is forced to hire a clerk, let for his own benefit, but for the advantage of his constituents who are constantly writing him for favors. Some members and senators are actually required to hire two or three clerks that the correspondence of their constituents may be treated decently, and that errands demanded by their official position may be promptly performed. It is said on excellent authority that very many congressmen receive from 50 to 150 letters a day, and of course no man will deny that a letter, no matter how unimportant it may be, or how lowly the writer, should receive a prompt and respectful answer. All this cannot be done without the aid of clerks, and the sentiment of an intelligent people will be that a congressman who is not willing to meet the exactions of his official position and do the very best for his constituents, is not worth his salary. There are some congressmen, not being able to hire a clerk, have to work almost day and night and perform the most exacting drudgery to keep up with the demands of their constituents, and then probably fall short of satisfying them.

Fourth—The salary of a congressman should be large enough to enable a poor man to fill the position creditably so far as meeting financial obligations are concerned. A man of very moderate circumstances who has been elected to congress and who loves his home, should receive a salary sufficiently large to enable him to keep his family where his business calls him, and not be forced to abandon his family during the session of congress.

Let the increase be fair with no retroactive provision about it, and the people will not find fault. It was the "back pay," that made the "salary grab" bill odious.

CHRONIC INEBRIATES.

The need for a hospital for inebriates has often been urged by the state press and been a subject of deliberation with our legislature, but as yet nothing has been done in the direction of actually providing for such need. Wisconsin has led off nobly in the way of charitable and reformatory institutions, yet it may be doubted whether the large, and it is to be feared, fast increasing class of inebriates, does not need immediately and imperatively challenge attention more than those afflicted with any other form of insanity; whether it does not more loudly demand expert treatment than any other type of mental or physical derangement. —State Journal.

There is certainly great need of an institution for chronic inebriates. There never has been one, and yet those who have lost all their physical strength and their mental powers through the misfortune of drink, are as much entitled to special care and treatment at the expense of the state, as those who become insane through any other cause. The Journal says that Dr. Bueler, the member of the assembly from Riceville, has introduced a bill, the provisions of which, at least temporarily, would meet the exigencies of the case. It directs that the superintendents of our state insane hospitals shall set aside two wards of their respective hospitals for the accommodation and treatment of chronic inebriates, and these wards are to be designated as the chronic inebriate departments of the respective hospitals. The superintendents are entrusted with full charge and responsibility of these departments in their respective hospitals. The subjects for commitment to these departments are to embrace habitual drunkards and all persons addicted to the use of narcotics beyond the degree of self-control.

The only drawback to this scheme is the want of room in either of the state hospitals. At present both are practically full, and to crowd them still more would be an outrage on the patients. Two wards in either hospital could not be spared without provision should be made

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

"I have made up my mind," added the president, "that we must have without delay a new collector in the place of Daniel McGone and I am satisfied that Postmaster Pearson should at once be removed. I want a man for collector who shall be thoroughly familiar with importing and exporting; a man who is well known to the business-men of New York and the country; one who is possessed of considerable wealth, so that he will be above temptation, or, in other words, a man whose business and social life is above suspicion. I want a similar man to succeed Postmaster Pearson."

Mr. Platt is reported as follows: "Mr. President," he said, "I am going to Florida for a brief rest. If you can find a suitable man as you want be good enough to send him to me. As the head of a great express company I need such men and I can afford to pay them double the amount of salary which the government would allow them."

Mr. Platt was right. There are companies and corporations that are ready to pay men President Harrison spoke of twice or three the salaries the government is paying. There is not a railway company in the United States of any sort of standing but that pays some of its officers double the salaries that the government pays to any one except the president. The government has never paid for brains. A man is expected to fill the office of secretary of state at $8,000 a year, and it will cost the secretary from $25,000 to $70,000 a year to live in Washington.

A story is told that Mr. Cleveland met Senator John J. Cullen on Broadway a few days ago. "How are you Cullen?" exclaimed the ex-president. "I feel like a canary bird," replied Cullen. "You only called on me once while I was in Washington," remarked the ex-president, as he smiled. "And I got the rattle-diddle," replied the original and frenzied John J. Cullen. It was the "rattle-diddle" that did much to defeat Cleveland. There were a great many good democrats who got the rattle-diddle from Cleveland and got it bad.

The policy of the new administration is that there shall be no blemish in the republican politics of New York. The patronage of that state has always been a burden to republican presidents, excepting probably President Arthur, whose consummate skill in dealing with men and things soon settled all disputes in regard to patronage. If President Harrison shall be as fortunate as Arthur was it will be well with him and well with the republican party of New York.

Colonel Fred Grant will do well at the Austrian-Hungarian Mission as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. He is 39 years old, a young man of sobriety, education and sense. He was in five battles by the time he was 13 years old, and at Champion Hills, one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, he galloped about on his little pony with his father, just as if the shot and shell had no terrors for him.

Roger A. Pryor, the great confederate, and the fire-eater who challenged John F. Potter to fight a duel in April, 1860, is becoming a republican so far as certain expressed convictions he has regarding the solid south. There are a good many democrats who are beginning to think that free trade and political murders are causing a breaking up of the solid south.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds has done is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and hysteria should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

Good to Be an Indian Citizen.

Citizenship among any of the five tribes of the Indian nation has a tangible cash value. The Cherokees, of whom there are between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand, possess 11,000,000 acres of land, worth from $3 to $15 an acre, and have $2,500,000 in the hands of the United States Government, from which they draw $42,000 a year, besides a rental of $200,000 from the cattle companies. When a surplus accumulates it is divided among the citizens. About half the Cherokees are full-blooded, while the rest are of mixed Scotch and Irish blood, but white men can not acquire citizenship now by simply marrying a Cherokee woman as formerly. Sam Houston married a Cherokee; so did John Sevier, and so did numbers of Adamses, Rosses, and other leading families of the South.

Sherman on "Thanks and Johnnies." Gen. Sherman, in a chat with Major Stuart of Texas, said that once at Vicksburg a flag of truce accompanied by a squad of men came to his headquarters, and that when it was necessary for them to return he found "the Yanks and about each other, calling one another by their first names and fraternizing immensely. 'If they could do it then they certainly would now in national homes,' remarked the General.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Wesslow's SOUTHERN SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

"I have made up my mind," added the president, "that we must have without delay a new collector in the place of Daniel McGone and I am satisfied that Postmaster Pearson should at once be removed. I want a man for collector who shall be thoroughly familiar with importing and exporting; a man who is well known to the business-men of New York and the country; one who is possessed of considerable wealth, so that he will be above temptation, or, in other words, a man whose business and social life is above suspicion. I want a similar man to succeed Postmaster Pearson."

Mr. Platt is reported as follows: "Mr. President," he said, "I am going to Florida for a brief rest. If you can find a suitable man as you want be good enough to send him to me. As the head of a great express company I need such men and I can afford to pay them double the amount of salary which the government would allow them."

Mr. Platt was right. There are companies and corporations that are ready to pay men President Harrison spoke of twice or three the salaries the government is paying. There is not a railway company in the United States of any sort of standing but that pays some of its officers double the salaries that the government pays to any one except the president. The government has never paid for brains. A man is expected to fill the office of secretary of state at $8,000 a year, and it will cost the secretary from $25,000 to $70,000 a year to live in Washington.

A story is told that Mr. Cleveland met Senator John J. Cullen on Broadway a few days ago. "How are you Cullen?" exclaimed the ex-president. "I feel like a canary bird," replied Cullen. "You only called on me once while I was in Washington," remarked the ex-president, as he smiled. "And I got the rattle-diddle," replied the original and frenzied John J. Cullen. It was the "rattle-diddle" that did much to defeat Cleveland. There were a great many good democrats who got the rattle-diddle from Cleveland and got it bad.

The policy of the new administration is that there shall be no blemish in the republican politics of New York. The patronage of that state has always been a burden to republican presidents, excepting probably President Arthur, whose consummate skill in dealing with men and things soon settled all disputes in regard to patronage. If President Harrison shall be as fortunate as Arthur was it will be well with him and well with the republican party of New York.

Colonel Fred Grant will do well at the Austrian-Hungarian Mission as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. He is 39 years old, a young man of sobriety, education and sense. He was in five battles by the time he was 13 years old, and at Champion Hills, one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, he galloped about on his little pony with his father, just as if the shot and shell had no terrors for him.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds has done is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and hysteria should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

Good to Be an Indian Citizen.

Citizenship among any of the five tribes of the Indian nation has a tangible cash value. The Cherokees, of whom there are between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand, possess 11,000,000 acres of land, worth from $3 to $15 an acre, and have $2,500,000 in the hands of the United States Government, from which they draw $42,000 a year, besides a rental of $200,000 from the cattle companies. When a surplus accumulates it is divided among the citizens. About half the Cherokees are full-blooded, while the rest are of mixed Scotch and Irish blood, but white men can not acquire citizenship now by simply marrying a Cherokee woman as formerly. Sam Houston married a Cherokee; so did John Sevier, and so did numbers of Adamses, Rosses, and other leading families of the South.

Sherman on "Thanks and Johnnies." Gen. Sherman, in a chat with Major Stuart of Texas, said that once at Vicksburg a flag of truce accompanied by a squad of men came to his headquarters, and that when it was necessary for them to return he found "the Yanks and about each other, calling one another by their first names and fraternizing immensely. 'If they could do it then they certainly would now in national homes,' remarked the General.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Wesslow's SOUTHERN SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

"I have made up my mind," added the president, "that we must have without delay a new collector in the place of Daniel McGone and I am satisfied that Postmaster Pearson should at once be removed. I want a man for collector who shall be thoroughly familiar with importing and exporting; a man who is well known to the business-men of New York and the country; one who is possessed of considerable wealth, so that he will be above temptation, or, in other words, a man whose business and social life is above suspicion. I want a similar man to succeed Postmaster Pearson."

Mr. Platt is reported as follows: "Mr. President," he said, "I am going to Florida for a brief rest. If you can find a suitable man as you want be good enough to send him to me. As the head of a great express company I need such men and I can afford to pay them double the amount of salary which the government would allow them."

Mr. Platt was right. There are companies and corporations that are ready to pay men President Harrison spoke of twice or three the salaries the government is paying. There is not a railway company in the United States of any sort of standing but that pays some of its officers double the salaries that the government pays to any one except the president. The government has never paid for brains. A man is expected to fill the office of secretary of state at $8,000 a year, and it will cost the secretary from $25,000 to $70,000 a year to live in Washington.

A story is told that Mr. Cleveland met Senator John J. Cullen on Broadway a few days ago. "How are you Cullen?" exclaimed the ex-president. "I feel like a canary bird," replied Cullen. "You only called on me once while I was in Washington," remarked the ex-president, as he smiled. "And I got the rattle-diddle," replied the original and frenzied John J. Cullen. It was the "rattle-diddle" that did much to defeat Cleveland. There were a great many good democrats who got the rattle-diddle from Cleveland and got it bad.

The policy of the new administration is that there shall be no blemish in the republican politics of New York. The patronage of that state has always been a burden to republican presidents, excepting probably President Arthur, whose consummate skill in dealing with men and things soon settled all disputes in regard to patronage. If President Harrison shall be as fortunate as Arthur was it will be well with him and well with the republican party of New York.

Colonel Fred Grant will do well at the Austrian-Hungarian Mission as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. He is 39 years old, a young man of sobriety, education and sense. He was in five battles by the time he was 13 years old, and at Champion Hills, one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, he galloped about on his little pony with his father, just as if the shot and shell had no terrors for him.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds has done is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and hysteria should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

Good to Be an Indian Citizen.

Citizenship among any of the five tribes of the Indian nation has a tangible cash value. The Cherokees, of whom there are between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand, possess 11,000,000 acres of land, worth from $3 to $15 an acre, and have $2,500,000 in the hands of the United States Government, from which they draw $42,000 a year, besides a rental of $200,000 from the cattle companies. When a surplus accumulates it is divided among the citizens. About half the Cherokees are full-blooded, while the rest are of mixed Scotch and Irish blood, but white men can not acquire citizenship now by simply marrying a Cherokee woman as formerly. Sam Houston married a Cherokee; so did John Sevier, and so did numbers of Adamses, Rosses, and other leading families of the South.

Sherman on "Thanks and Johnnies." Gen. Sherman, in a chat with Major Stuart of Texas, said that once at Vicksburg a flag of truce accompanied by a squad of men came to his headquarters, and that when it was necessary for them to return he found "the Yanks and about each other, calling one another by their first names and fraternizing immensely. 'If they could do it then they certainly would now in national homes,' remarked the General.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Wesslow's SOUTHERN SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

"I have made up my mind," added the president, "that we must have without delay a new collector in the place of Daniel McGone and I am satisfied that Postmaster Pearson should at once be removed. I want a man for collector who shall be thoroughly familiar with importing and exporting; a man who is well known to the business-men of New York and the country; one who is possessed of considerable wealth, so that he will be above temptation, or, in other words, a man whose business and social life is above suspicion. I want a similar man to succeed Postmaster Pearson."

Mr. Platt is reported as follows: "Mr. President," he said, "I am going to Florida for a brief rest. If you can find a suitable man as you want be good enough to send him to me. As the head of a great express company I need such men and I can afford to pay them double the amount of salary which the government would allow them."

Mr. Platt was right. There are companies and corporations that are ready to pay men President Harrison spoke of twice or three the salaries the government is paying. There is not a railway company in the United States of any sort of standing but that pays some of its officers double the salaries that the government pays to any one except the president. The government has never paid for brains. A man is expected to fill the office of secretary of state at $8,000 a year, and it will cost the secretary from $25,000 to $70,000 a year to live in Washington.

A story is told that Mr. Cleveland met Senator John J. Cullen on Broadway a few days ago. "How are you Cullen?" exclaimed the ex-president. "I feel like a canary bird," replied Cullen. "You only called on me once while I was in Washington," remarked the ex-president, as he smiled. "And I got the rattle-diddle," replied the original and frenzied John J. Cullen. It was the "rattle-diddle" that did much to defeat Cleveland. There were a great many good democrats who got the rattle-diddle from Cleveland and got it bad.

The policy of the new administration is that there shall be no blemish in the republican politics of New York. The patronage of that state has always been a burden to republican presidents, excepting probably President Arthur, whose consummate skill in dealing with men and things soon settled all disputes in regard to patronage. If President Harrison shall be as fortunate as Arthur was it will be well with him and well with the republican party of New York.

Colonel Fred Grant will do well at the Austrian-Hungarian Mission as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. He is 39 years old, a young man of sobriety, education and sense. He was in five battles by the time he was 13 years old, and at Champion Hills, one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, he galloped about on his little pony with his father, just as if the shot and shell had no terrors for him.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds has done is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and hysteria should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

Good to Be an Indian Citizen.

Citizenship among any of the five tribes of the Indian nation has a tangible cash value. The Cherokees, of whom there are between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand, possess 11,000,000 acres of land, worth from $3 to $15 an acre, and have $2,500,000 in the hands of the United States Government, from which they draw $42,000 a year, besides a rental of $200,000 from the cattle companies. When a surplus accumulates it is divided among the citizens. About half the Cherokees are full-blooded, while the rest are of mixed Scotch and Irish blood, but white men can not acquire citizenship now by simply marrying a Cherokee woman as formerly. Sam Houston married a Cherokee; so did John Sevier, and so did numbers of Adamses, Rosses, and other leading families of the South.

Sherman on "Thanks and Johnnies." Gen. Sherman, in a chat with Major Stuart of Texas, said that once at Vicksburg a flag of truce accompanied by a squad of men came to his headquarters, and that when it was necessary for them to return he found "the Yanks and about each other, calling one another by their first names and fraternizing immensely. 'If they could do it then they certainly would now in national homes,' remarked the General.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Wesslow's SOUTHERN SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

"I have made up my mind," added the president, "that we must have without delay a new collector in the place of Daniel McGone and I am satisfied that Postmaster Pearson should at once be removed. I want a man for collector who shall be thoroughly familiar with importing and exporting; a man who is well known to the business-men of New York and the country; one who is possessed of considerable wealth, so that he will be above temptation, or, in other words, a man whose business and social life is above suspicion. I want a similar man to succeed Postmaster Pearson."

Mr. Platt is reported as follows: "Mr. President," he said, "I am going to Florida for a brief rest. If you can find a suitable man as you want be good enough to send him to me. As the head of a great express company I need such men and I can afford to pay them double the amount of salary which the government would allow them."

Mr. Platt was right. There are companies and corporations that are ready to pay men President Harrison spoke of twice or three the salaries the government is paying. There is not a railway company in the United States of any sort of standing but that pays some of its officers double the salaries that the government pays to any one except the president. The government has never paid for brains. A man is expected to fill the office of secretary of state at $8,000 a year, and it will cost the secretary from $25,000 to $70,000 a year to live in Washington.

A story is told that Mr. Cleveland met Senator John J. Cullen on Broadway a few days ago. "How are you Cullen?" exclaimed the ex-president. "I feel like a canary bird," replied Cullen. "You only called on me once while I was in Washington," remarked the ex-president, as he smiled. "And I got the rattle-diddle," replied the original and frenzied John J. Cullen. It was the "rattle-diddle" that did much to defeat Cleveland. There were a great many good democrats who got the rattle-diddle from Cleveland and got it bad.

The policy of the new administration is that there shall be no blemish in the republican politics of New York. The patronage of that state has always been a burden to republican presidents, excepting probably President Arthur, whose consummate skill in dealing with men and things soon settled all disputes in regard to patronage. If President Harrison shall be as fortunate as Arthur was it will be well with him and well with the republican party of New York.

Colonel Fred Grant will do well at the Austrian-Hungarian Mission as envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary. He is 39 years old, a young man of sobriety, education and sense. He was in five battles by the time he was 13 years old, and at Champion Hills, one of the bloodiest battles of the civil war, he galloped about on his little pony with his father, just as if the shot and shell had no terrors for him.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for Coughs and Colds has done is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for it a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THOSE UNHAPPY PERSONS who suffer from nervousness and hysteria should use Carter's Little Nerve Pills, which are made expressly for sleepless, nervous, dyspeptic sufferers. Price 25 cents.

Good to Be an Indian Citizen.

Citizenship among any of the five tribes of the Indian nation has a tangible cash value. The Cherokees, of whom there are between twenty thousand and twenty-five thousand, possess 11,000,000 acres of land, worth from $3 to $15 an acre, and have $2,500,000 in the hands of the United States Government, from which they draw $42,000 a year, besides a rental of $200,000 from the cattle companies. When a surplus accumulates it is divided among the citizens. About half the Cherokees are full-blooded, while the rest are of mixed Scotch and Irish blood, but white men can not acquire citizenship now by simply marrying a Cherokee woman as formerly. Sam Houston married a Cherokee; so did John Sevier, and so did numbers of Adamses, Rosses, and other leading families of the South.

Sherman on "Thanks and Johnnies." Gen. Sherman, in a chat with Major Stuart of Texas, said that once at Vicksburg a flag of truce accompanied by a squad of men came to his headquarters, and that when it was necessary for them to return he found "the Yanks and about each other, calling one another by their first names and fraternizing immensely. 'If they could do it then they certainly would now in national homes,' remarked the General.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. Wesslow's SOUTHERN SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, cures the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. 25c a bottle.

THE HONEYMOON BEGUN.

SENSATION OVER THE FULLER-AUBREY ELOPEMENT.

The First Wedded Day—The Parents of Both Ready to Forgo and Bestow Their Blessing.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The elopement to Milwaukee and hasty marriage Tuesday of Mr. J. Matt Aubrey, Jr., and Miss Pauline Fuller is a piquant dish for Chicago society and the talk of the town. Mr. Fuller and many of the chief justice's friends were deeply sorry that the marriage should have occurred under such circumstances, while the Aubreys were astonished and elated. The elopement was many months old; the elopement an impulse.

Miss Pauline was a lovely girl of 18 and the fifth daughter. She has a slender, shapely figure. Her eyes and hair are dark. Her complexion is clear and fair. After her grammar-school days she was carefully educated under instructors at home, and then at the University of Wisconsin, where she had a brilliant debut in society, and it had been arranged that she was to "come out" in Washington.

1

1

9
2
1

-
-
1
C,

n,
=
S
ek

v.
and ty est
v. ol-
nd

le-

For
cial
for of day
ks.
on ad-
ades-y of that e by are tled

SIN,
Phillip
George

parallel

ten west-
River
(110) n the f the
' and addi-
1) sec-northes and ity of Wis-ficient
t costs
ithout
—Dat-
EK.
eriff.
DN.
eriff.

7W.

ARK.

THE GAZETTE.

THE OFFICIAL CITY PAPER.

AVERAGE CIRCULATION OF DAILY AND WEEKLY $5,000.

LOCAL MATTERS.

G. Cogswell & Co.'s sale closes Saturday night, customers will please come in the forenoon if possible. Sizes somewhat broken, but still have lots of high grade shoes.

Lisle hose, regular made 28 cents, worth 30 cents; cotton hose 3 pair for 25 cents, worth 30 cents; cotton hose 10 cents, worth 15 cents. THE MAGNET.

Bottled Milk.

The question is sometimes asked: "Are the bottles used for distributing milk thoroughly cleaned before using the second time?" Regarding this matter I wish to state that the bottles are washed at the dairy with a brush, then scalded and put in a cooler, where they remain until filled for the next route. We guarantee the bottles to be sweet and clean, and the milk to be of the best quality.

Mrs. A. B. Hughes.

For sale of meat.

My place just north of city limits, west of Milton avenue, 15 acres of land, good house, barns and tobacco shed. Enquire of P. Kavanagh, at W. H. Ashcraft's furniture store.

Auction Friday morning, March 22d, at 10 o'clock.

Patronize Wisch the barber. Pious block.

Thursday sale history; remember that the special prices are for that day only. THE MAGNET.

WORK WANTED—By a young man of Janesville, in city or country. Address X, Gazette.

At Wheelocks you get choice of best baby carriages from five best factories in the United States. See the stock. Get matchings. Goods warranted. Prices correct.

Buy the celebrated world wide advertised Douglas shoe. They are the best known shoes made and are the most popular. They combine style, comfort, and economy. Every dealer in the land is ready to possess the sale of these goods. They even buy old dried up, frost bitten stock with age sufficient to show handsome whiskers, for the purpose of obtaining a few pairs of these popular goods. Browns Bros.

Compare our stock of black dress goods with any other in the city. You can readily decide which is the largest and most complete.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Writing paper, envelopes, and calling cards, at King & Skelly's bookstore.

Join the speed class, all systems, at Sander's short hand school next Monday evening. $2 a month.

WANTED—A girl to do general housework at 203 Cherry street.

Honorary day at The Magnet to-morrow. Special drives in three different lines.

Another arrival of splendid spring styles of Wall papers at the bookstore of James Sutherland & Sons.

Cloaks.—If interested we can interest you. Our prices are down to the lowest notch. J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Decker Bros. pianos for sale at C. M. B., 24 South Main street.

New spring styles in wall paper and borders at King & Skelly's bookstore.

2,500 Japanese paper napkins, new styles and design, just received at King & Skelly's bookstore.

Largest and best assortment of shades and shade goods, at King & Skelly's bookstore.

Diamond ink which writes on glass. Call at Wheelock's and see how it works.

Don't fail to take advantage of the "Thursday sale" at The Magnet, 21 East Milwaukee street.

Horse-clipping carefully attended to. NELSON BROS.

Why pay $4 for a shoe we sell at $3.50. RICHARDSON SHOE CO.

$1.95 is what Brown Bros. the shoe men, want for a ladies custom made dangle kid shoe.

Don't pay more than $3.50 for Douglas shoe, see price list.

RICHARDSON SHOE CO.

Blankets—blankets—blankets. Our prices are low enough to interest any one. Bound to make them less if low prices will do it.

J. M. Bostwick & Sons.

Price list on W. L. Douglas shoes.—$4 hand sewed, $3.50; $3 calf shoes $2.50; $2.50 calf shoes, $2; $3 boys' shoes, $1.75. Each one stamped on the sole and warranted. RICHARDSON SHOE CO.

—Cutaway and sack business suits in great variety and at living prices at Zeigler's.

Spring fashions, and latest styles of dress making by Miss Anna Wallace next door to Vankirk Bros., grocers, West Milwaukee street.

Fifty corders wanted at Norverhill's warehouse.

Which has the finest tonorial parlors in the city.

A comparatively new upright piano for $175. Call and see it at 35 South Main Street.

B. O. should have been stamped on the bottom of a large share of the Douglas shoes contained in the Madden stock. No thank you, we are not dealers in second hand goods. We buy only of manufacturers. BROWN BROS.

The best curtain fixtures, poles, chains, hooks, shade pulls, etc., at Sutherland's Bookstore, east side the river.

NOTICE TO FARMERS.—You will find Brown Bros. stock of Rubber Boots the largest in Rock county, and their prices are squeezed down to the lowest notch. Try them.

To Rent—House for small family corner South Third and Jackson Sts. Enquire of Wm. Ross.

Call and see the Estey piano at C. M. B., 24 South Main street.

THE LATEST CRAZE.

Young women now enjoy the style of writing which is hot. And one who is called "The Magnet" on the floor.

BRIEFLETS.

—Ed. F. Carpenter is in Milwaukee on matters of business.

—Farmers have commenced plowing and sowing in this vicinity.

—Sanborn's second hand store is now located at 28 Main street.

—Mr. J. L. Bostwick has returned from Washington and other eastern cities.

—Franklin street about the corn exchange square is being covered with rubble stone.

—A heavier engine, No. 432, has replaced switch engine No. 181 in the Northwestern yards.

—Sale of reserved seats for the Beloit concert will commence at King & Skelly's to-morrow morning.

—Charles F. Sigmund now agent for Blair & Andres, of Milwaukee, has been shaking hands with friends in this city.

—Reports from the bedside of Thomas Lappin, indicate that the steady improvement of yesterday has not been interrupted.

—Janesville Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons, assemble in regular session monthly convocation this evening at Masonic hall.

—Will Burdick, the well-known ball-player, was in town to-day, on his way from Minneapolis, to join the Indianapolis team.

—Mrs. Wm. Becken, of Albion, New York, is in the city visiting her brother, Mr. John Fitcher, 158 Prospect avenue, second ward.

—Miss Maud Crane will entertain the Fourteenth Club this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane, 209 Center avenue.

—A large number of people patronized the excellent supper given by the ladies of Court Street M. E. church last evening at the Sunday school rooms.

—M. S. Maloney, the well-known Belvidere horseman, was in the city to-day with H. D. McKinney. Horse-owners begin to talk of the June trotting meeting.

—The ladies of All Souls church and society are arranging to hold an Easter Market and supper at the church parlors on Easter Monday and evening. Further details later.

—The Night Owl's Walzing Club will give a masquerade party this evening at the Army. This will be a private party and Prof. Tuckwood's orchestra will furnish the music.

—Mr. H. A. Doty announces in another column that he will sell his interest in the Doty Box Co. This is a good opportunity for some one to secure a well established business.

—Much interest has been aroused by the announcement of the Beloit Barjo Club concert at Lappin's hall next Monday evening. The club is likely to be greeted by a full house.

—The Lyceum Theatre company appeared at Lappin's hall last evening. Among those in the cast were Mrs. J. H. Brown, of this city; J. H. Callen and Master Dorman O'Connell.

—Ralph H. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wheeler, of La Prairie, graduates with honors from Fennett Medical College, Chicago, this month. He will receive many congratulations.

—An adjourned meeting of the common council will be held this evening to consider the report of the committee on fire and water in relation to the purchase of a new hook and ladder truck.

—There is likely to be fun for all at the Army this evening. The N. O. W. club is full of the spirit of success and the costumes that have been devised promise to make this evening's masquerade a memorable one.

—Members of the several republican committees will not forget to attend the meeting at the editorial rooms of the Gazette this evening at eight o'clock. It is desired that every member of such committees be in attendance.

—Gutter playing now finds general favor among Janesville young people. Many applications for lessons have been made to George Anderson, and he now has a class of considerable size. His terms are fifteen dollars for a term of twenty lessons.

—Mr. Walter O. Parmley and bride, who have for the past week been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hathorn, left this morning for Whitewater, where they will spend a few days with the bride's parents and then start for their future home in San Bernardino, California, visiting friends on the way.

—One of the latest novelties in advertising cards introduced in the city shows an old man leaning from a window and drawing a bead on a serenade in the street below. A lighted cigarette touched to the muzzle of the gun causes a flash of fire to shoot across the card, the discharge leaving the young man minus a head.

—Frederick Bogardus, now connected with the Park barber shop, South Main street, will be advance agent for the Helen Beayard combination, which will take the road immediately after Easter. A handsome series of photographs of the various members of the company in costume are being finished by Wise. The company will open in Evansville.

—Hon. N. R. Graham and wife, of Wheaton, Illinois, are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Graham, Milton avenue. Mr. Graham is a member of the Illinois legislature, representing the Wheaton district, and he and his wife came to Janesville from Springfield this morning to visit a day or two, on learning that our Mr. Graham intended to leave on to-morrow for Austin, Nevada, to superintend his mining interests.

—Miss Brothers, of this city, requests the Gazette to contradict the reports concerning the fire escapes on the Myers House and on Lappin's block. They are not the Bonner escape, that many have been told and believe. Mr. Bonner, of Chicago, will be in the city in a day or two to look after his interests here with the local agents, Mills Brothers, and parties contemplating purchasing the best escape made will do well to hold their orders until he arrives.

—A. J. Wadsworth's many friends in the city are indignant at the published reports of his insanity. Mr. Wadsworth was in Milwaukee several days, but went there to rest at the advice of physicians.

business on a sound basis. His "insanity" is not so marked but that he has resumed the personal management of his bakery, turning out twenty-eight hundred loaves of bread a day, and is demonstrating the clearness of his business insight by daily improvements on the methods and materials in use.

—The children's musical society which has met with unusual success, are commencing the spring term of work, and it is desired that all boys and girls who wish to become members will join at once, in order to take up during the spring vacation of the public schools, the extra work and drill for the annual song festival to be given at Lappin's Opera house. A special class for older pupils from thirteen to sixteen years of age. As an answer to the objection made by some, to the children's concerts closing each term, it can be said that it is a recognized fact that children, as well as adults, work better and more enthusiastically, with a definite object in view, which encourages them in more thorough and conscientious work. $1.00 per term of ten weeks payable in advance. Younger pupils after school, Friday afternoon. Older pupils half past six, Friday afternoon, at Miss Benedict's music rooms, opposite postoffice.

—Janesville Chapter No. 5, Royal Arch Masons, assemble in regular session monthly convocation this evening at Masonic hall.

—Will Burdick, the well-known ball-player, was in town to-day, on his way from Minneapolis, to join the Indianapolis team.

—Mrs. Wm. Becken, of Albion, New York, is in the city visiting her brother, Mr. John Fitcher, 158 Prospect avenue, second ward.

—Miss Maud Crane will entertain the Fourteenth Club this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crane, 209 Center avenue.

—A large number of people patronized the excellent supper given by the ladies of Court Street M. E. church last evening at the Sunday school rooms.

—M. S. Maloney, the well-known Belvidere horseman, was in the city to-day with H. D. McKinney. Horse-owners begin to talk of the June trotting meeting.

—The ladies of All Souls church and society are arranging to hold an Easter Market and supper at the church parlors on Easter Monday and evening. Further details later.

—The Night Owl's Walzing Club will give a masquerade party this evening at the Army. This will be a private party and Prof. Tuckwood's orchestra will furnish the music.

—Mr. H. A. Doty announces in another column that he will sell his interest in the Doty Box Co. This is a good opportunity for some one to secure a well established business.

—Much interest has been aroused by the announcement of the Beloit Barjo Club concert at Lappin's hall next Monday evening. The club is likely to be greeted by a full house.

—The Lyceum Theatre company appeared at Lappin's hall last evening. Among those in the cast were Mrs. J. H. Brown, of this city; J. H. Callen and Master Dorman O'Connell.

—Ralph H. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Wheeler, of La Prairie, graduates with honors from Fennett Medical College, Chicago, this month. He will receive many congratulations.

—An adjourned meeting of the common council will be held this evening to consider the report of the committee on fire and water in relation to the purchase of a new hook and ladder truck.

—There is likely to be fun for all at the Army this evening. The N. O. W. club is full of the spirit of success and the costumes that have been devised promise to make this evening's masquerade a memorable one.

—Members of the several republican committees will not forget to attend the meeting at the editorial rooms of the Gazette this evening at eight o'clock. It is desired that every member of such committees be in attendance.

—Gutter playing now finds general favor among Janesville young people. Many applications for lessons have been made to George Anderson, and he now has a class of considerable size. His terms are fifteen dollars for a term of twenty lessons.

—Mr. Walter O. Parmley and bride, who have for the past week been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hathorn, left this morning for Whitewater, where they will spend a few days with the bride's parents and then start for their future home in San Bernardino, California, visiting friends on the way.

—One of the latest novelties in advertising cards introduced in the city shows an old man leaning from a window and drawing a bead on a serenade in the street below. A lighted cigarette touched to the muzzle of the gun causes a flash of fire to shoot across the card, the discharge leaving the young man minus a head.

—Frederick Bogardus, now connected with the Park barber shop, South Main street, will be advance agent for the Helen Beayard combination, which will take the road immediately after Easter. A handsome series of photographs of the various members of the company in costume are being finished by Wise. The company will open in Evansville.

MALONE'S BODY FOUND.

He Left His Johnstown Home On Monday Morning, December 3d.

Found Floating in the Race-way This Afternoon a Few Minutes After One.

A few minutes after twelve o'clock this afternoon Mr. J. C. Hemmons, with Kimball & Hall, furniture dealer at 18 West Milwaukee street, while looking out of one of the back windows of the establishment, discovered the floating body of a man near the grating placed in the raceway to arrest the driftwood. He at once notified the marshal and the body was soon taken from the water. It was a sickening sight and had evidently been in the water a long time. Bloated, blackened and decomposed, few cared to take more than a passing glance as they passed by the platform where it lay. Marshal Hogan, however, quickly recognized the body as that of Patrick Malone, of Johnstown, who had been missing since Monday, December 3d, 1888. The body was at once taken in charge by Marshal Hogan and removed to the morgue of Messrs. Kimball & Hall on Wall street near Franklin.

Justice Scanlan was notified of the facts and issued a summons for a coroner's jury, summoning the jury to look into the case.

Regarding the disappearance of deceased but little is known. He left Monday morning, December 3d. After he had been absent from his home for four days, his family became alarmed and began a search. The following appeared in the Gazette, being all the details then known:—

"Farmer Malone came to town from Johnstown, Gen. Monday. He had moved to sign the pledge, and before night he was in such a state that Milwaukee street seemed a wild, eddying whirl of electric lights and shooting stars, and each man he met seemed to have two heads. Sometime during the evening he disappeared and nothing has been seen of him since."

Marshal Hogan found Malone's horses on the street Monday night and put them in aivery stable, where they remained until Tuesday when Malone's relatives came in to see where their kinsman had gone. Distant inquiry after the mission man has been made but nothing new has been revealed. Malone is described as being about forty years of age, of sandy complexion, and with light monache. A reward of fifty dollars for news of his whereabouts has been offered."

Perhaps the investigation of the coroner may reveal something further.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

HELD AT ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH THIS MORNING IN MEMORY OF THE LATE FATHER COLLINS.

"Month's Mind" or memorial services were held at St. Patrick's church this morning at nine o'clock, in memory of the late Father John G. Collins, late of Eau Claire. Month's Mind, according to the canons of the Roman Catholic church, takes place thirty days after the funeral of the deceased, the services being similar in all respects to that held on the day of the funeral, except that in this case the Rev. Father Durbin, of Milwaukee, who was to have preached the sermon on the day of the funeral, took the place of Father Fagan. There was not so large an attendance of visiting clergymen to-day as one month ago, those present being: Father James Harlin, of Monches; Michael Condon, of Mapleton; J. F. Boyle, of Edgerton; H. O'Brien, of Monroe; Eugene Kelley, of Geneva Lake; Christopher Kelly, of Brodhead; Joseph Smith, of Delavan; Father Durbin, of Milwaukee. Smith & Anderson's orchestra assisted the choir in rendering the same music as at the funeral, and a large assemblage joined in the solemn rites.

WOMEN WITH PALE COLORLESS FACE who feel weak and discouraged, will receive both mental and bodily vigor by using Dr. Cable's Iron Pills, which are made for the blood, nerves and complexion.

SINGERS TAKE COURAGE.

THEY FORM A LOCAL SOCIETY ON A NEW BASIS.

By no means disheartened at the rate of the Philharmonic Society, Janesville singers have banded together once more. Last evening the first regular meeting was held of a club of fifty members. The meeting was held at the rooms of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Burr at the Myers House, and Mendelssohn's "Walpurgis Night" was taken up for study.

The club was organized at the Grand Hotel one week ago, much of the credit for its formation being due to Mrs. J. W. St. John and Mrs. C. B. Conrad. No name was selected, but it was decided to secure Professor Hughes as leader and begin with a term of eight weeks, tickets being placed at two dollars in advance. A concert will be given in May to mark the ending of the term.

A Card.

I would like the name and address of each reader of this paper who would like to buy a Gold Watch. I can sell a good gold watch at $28 and will give plenty of time to pay for it. Address C. H. STODDARD, 420 Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill.

ANOTHER FINE HOUSE.

THE FAST PAPER "EVENING" PURCHASED BY H. D. MCKINNEY.

The Chicago Times of Wednesday, publishes the following, which will interest Janesville people: A telegram from H. D. McKinney, dated Cambridge City, Indiana conveys the information that he purchased yesterday the fast paper Evening Boy, by Pochontons Boy. Raven Boy made his record at Washington park last summer, taking the first and second heats in the 2:18 class in 2:16 1/4. Price paid for him, $3,500. This fine horse, Mr. McKinney says is for a party in the south.

A Sad Story.

The child groined. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Notice to Pay.

All persons indebted to the firm of Foote & Wilcox of Janesville, Wis., are requested to pay the same at once to the undersigned, at his office in the city of Janesville, Wis.

REWARD MONEY.

"Ayer's Medicine has been satisfactory to me throughout my practice, especially Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has been used by many of my patients, one of whom says he knows it saved his life."—F. L. Morris, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE FAST PAPER "EVENING" PURCHASED BY H. D. MCKINNEY.

The Chicago Times of Wednesday, publishes the following, which will interest Janesville people: A telegram from H. D. McKinney, dated Cambridge City, Indiana conveys the information that he purchased yesterday the fast paper Evening Boy, by Pochontons Boy. Raven Boy made his record at Washington park last summer, taking the first and second heats in the 2:18 class in 2:16 1/4. Price paid for him, $3,500. This fine horse, Mr. McKinney says is for a party in the south.

A Sad Story.

The child groined. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Notice to Pay.

All persons indebted to the firm of Foote & Wilcox of Janesville, Wis., are requested to pay the same at once to the undersigned, at his office in the city of Janesville, Wis.

REWARD MONEY.

"Ayer's Medicine has been satisfactory to me throughout my practice, especially Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has been used by many of my patients, one of whom says he knows it saved his life."—F. L. Morris, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE FAST PAPER "EVENING" PURCHASED BY H. D. MCKINNEY.

The Chicago Times of Wednesday, publishes the following, which will interest Janesville people: A telegram from H. D. McKinney, dated Cambridge City, Indiana conveys the information that he purchased yesterday the fast paper Evening Boy, by Pochontons Boy. Raven Boy made his record at Washington park last summer, taking the first and second heats in the 2:18 class in 2:16 1/4. Price paid for him, $3,500. This fine horse, Mr. McKinney says is for a party in the south.

A Sad Story.

The child groined. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Notice to Pay.

All persons indebted to the firm of Foote & Wilcox of Janesville, Wis., are requested to pay the same at once to the undersigned, at his office in the city of Janesville, Wis.

REWARD MONEY.

"Ayer's Medicine has been satisfactory to me throughout my practice, especially Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which has been used by many of my patients, one of whom says he knows it saved his life."—F. L. Morris, M. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE FAST PAPER "EVENING" PURCHASED BY H. D. MCKINNEY.

The Chicago Times of Wednesday, publishes the following, which will interest Janesville people: A telegram from H. D. McKinney, dated Cambridge City, Indiana conveys the information that he purchased yesterday the fast paper Evening Boy, by Pochontons Boy. Raven Boy made his record at Washington park last summer, taking the first and second heats in the 2:18 class in 2:16 1/4. Price paid for him, $3,500. This fine horse, Mr. McKinney says is for a party in the south.

A Sad Story.

The child groined. The mother ran. No remedy was near. Before morning the poor little sufferer was dead. Moral: Always keep Dr. Acker's English Remedy at hand. Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

Notice to Pay.

All persons indebted to the firm of Foote & Wilcox of Janesville, Wis., are requested to pay the same at once to the undersigned, at his office in the city of Janesville, Wis.

REWARD MONEY.

REPUBLICAN COMMITTEES.

A CALL FOR CONSULTATION ON THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 21st, AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.

The members of the several ward committees are requested to meet with the republican city committee at the editorial rooms of the Gazette on Thursday evening, March 21st, at eight o'clock, to consider matters pertaining to the coming municipal election, and to consider any business that may properly come before such meeting. A full and prompt attendance of the members of the several committees is desired.

The committee as appointed at the caucuses held last spring are:

First Ward—J. A. Dennison, W. H. Ashcraft, George Woodruff.

Second Ward—John O. Jenkins, R. L. Colvin, S. C. Burnham.

Third Ward—Stanley B. Smith, S. B. Phelps, W. Gardiner.

Fourth Ward—W. G. Palmer, J. B. Green, F. H. Marshall.

Fifth Ward—N. E. Bennett, E. R. Immann, Richard O'Donnell.

The city committee, as appointed at the republican city convention held last spring, is composed of—

H. F. Bliss, at large.

First Ward—O. D. Rowe.

Second Ward—E. S. Nolan.

Third Ward—J. F. Carpenter.

Fourth Ward—Thomas Mahon.

Fifth Ward—Wilson Lane.

By order of the committee.

H. F. Bliss, Chairman.

Janesville, March 19th, 1889.

THE KRECHTIN'S STORY.

POINTS FROM "THE BEHIN-GOLD," OF INTEREST TO JANSVILLE PEOPLE.

A number of Janesville music lovers are preparing to enjoy the Wagnerian opera soon to be